Harry Stone and family of Utah, are visiting at his father's, Dr. F. Stone's.
The Noyes Drug Store folks are giving great bargains in remnant wall papers.
H. P. Andrews, wife and two children from Hudson, Mass., are visiting at Mrs.
Ellen Buswell's, Mrs. Andrews' mother.
G. M. Packard has just received the largest lot of stamped linen goods ever imported in Oxford Co.
Nelle Dinsmore, who taught in our village school, has returned to her position in the Cambridge, Ill. schools.
Horsemen should have constantly on hand Noyes' Dressing Compound, the very best in the market. See ad.
Mrs. Wm. B. Lapham and daughter of Andover, are visiting at Mrs. Joseph Churchill's.
Monday, September 3rd, will be Labor Day, a legal holiday. Banks will be closed.
Alfred Packard has a nice line of Fall millinery, including the most stylish shades in bonnet and hat frames.
E. A. Morrison, has been very sick with convulsions but is now better.
The children of Packard and son of North Auburn visited in town the past week.
Take the 6:30 train Saturday morning and visit the White Squadron. Fare $1.00.
A trial will convince you that the best place in town to buy your groceries is at H. & J. Dinsmore's.
The largest stock of watches, clocks, jewelry, and silverware, is at the store of Geo. W. L. Dinsmore, who is located in Oxford County at Horrocks Coke's, the jeweler, Norway.
Mrs. Norris S. Tibbels' infant child, John, died Sunday, August 26th.
Mrs. Tibbels lives in Auburn and is the daughter of G. W. Locke of the village.
Chas. E. French of Milton, N. H., is visiting his brother, Byron Evans.
Jerry Winslow is on the sick list.
J. F. Henry, who had his hand injured in the fire at the mill, is now at home and is getting on his feet.
A new and full line of fall styles in hats and caps can be seen at Conner's Plumbers'. They have a fine line of the plumbers' and will please you.
At the last meeting of the W. C. T. U.
Drs. Woodbury and Rounds were presents and spoke of the use of alcohol in their practice. Letters were read from Drs. Yates and Packard. The meeting closed with an ice cream social.
Prof. Hewitt and wife of Cornell University, arrived in town Saturday night and are at his mother's, Mrs. Sarah Howland's.
Burnham & Morrill's corn shop started up Friday. They expect to put up 5,000 ears of corn.
F. C. Morrill is about to begin work in his factory. J. M. Cummings and Frank Parker went to the mill to see the new machinery.
The Good Templars installed officers
last week. - Wallace Strickland,
C. T. Julia Harlow, V. T. I. M.
Cummings, and Arthur Boyd, man-shah, B. F. Fitz, grand.
Mrs. A. M. Gerry and Harry and Olive have been visiting in Norway. They visited the White Squadron, Saturday
Fare $1.00, to Portland and return.
WHITECROFT DISTRICT - Fall term of school begins next Monday.
Rev. Mr. Edge preached at the school house last Sunday.
Mrs. E. C. Thompson and little daughter of Norway, are spending the week at Standish home.
Mrs. Mary Watson and son, Ralph, of Mass., are at the Whittemore home.
F. A. Briggs has just received a new lot of groceries.
Meeting of Paris Grange next Saturday, Sept. 8th.
Frank Bacon of Mass., who has been visiting friends in town, returned home last week.
Mrs. Jennie Tucker went to Conn. last week to visit her mother.
Wilson Bonney, Winnie Cook and Frank Briggs recently played the Poland base ball nine against the Mecha-nic's Falls regular nine.
James Whiteside of South Paris, goes this week to Fairfield, Conn., to attend school.
Lula Cook of South Paris, went to Portland last week to visit her mother.
Geo. W. Cook and son, Winnie, of South Paris, have been at work the past two weeks at West Paris, on an addition to the Old Store's mill.
The block will now contain two good mills, one above and one below and will supply a long felt public need. It is now ready to be plastered.
Dax collector Charles Garland was in this village last week making his annual distribution of tax bills. The genial faces of himself and wife made it quite a pleasant occasion.
PORTER DISTRICT - Mrs. Frank Calderwood and her two children from Portland, visited in town, visiting at Mrs.
Greene's.
Ben Greely and Mabel Rawson have been visiting friends at York and Portland.

self a new carriage.
The ladies of the Congregational church and parish are preparing for the celebration of their church Friday p. m. at 4 o'clock to make arrangements for the centenary fair. It is hoped there will be a good attendance of ladies at the meeting.
W. P. Dunham has a dog he recently bought at South Paris, which weighs one and one-half pounds. When full grown it ought not to weigh four pounds.
It is a pretty small bunch of trouble and mischievous.
The low rates secured on the railroad enabled all to visit the White Squadron in Portland Harbor, Saturday Sept. 8th. A large number of people were present.
Rates - Portland, $1.00; West Bethel,
1.25; Locke's Mills, 1.35; Bryant's
Point, 1.25; W. Paris, 1.15; Norway,
South Paris, Oxford, 1.00.
Sept. 8th, Woodley of the Dearborn Club Co. of Chicago writes a friend here and says, "I have made several attempts to start East this summer but have been unable to get away." We have been expecting he would visit Norway this season and are very sorry that he cannot get away.
John Callahan and family came down from the city last Tuesday to attend the circus. John has considerable of a family. The list is as follows: - John H. B. F. A. B. F. and Miss May. They returned to the Lake Cottage, Wednesday. Part of the family will soon return to their home in Lynn so the boys can attend school.
Last spring when the water in the lake was high it was impossible to build over and across the lake. It was thought that the water was low and that it would be possible of its going out in high water.
The water is at its lowest and the dam and levee should be put in shape and thus avoid another dam scare next spring.
Now is the time to fix it and it should be attended to at once.
Several from this place attended the Carnival at Norway Lakes.
Mrs. Lander and Johnnie Thurlow went to Bethel Saturday to visit Mrs.
Lander's mother, Mrs. George Allen.
Mrs. M. King has gone to Worcester, Mass., this week with her herd of Jersey cows to the New England Fair.
